PERTHSHIRE
PH1 1NW

Set amid rolling hills, tranquil lochs, glittering rivers, well-tended farmland and beautiful forests, Stephen Country Homes has created a quite exquisite development in one of Scotland's most stunning locations.

CLATHYMORE

The landscaping within Clathymore's 60 acres includes over 60,000 trees and hedge plants as part of the woodland planting. Boundary walls feature extensive use of natural local stone; a ha-ha and a deer fence protect gardens and trees.

With 42 homes built to date the overall effect is that of a traditional hamlet. Woodland walks, extensive open spaces and beautiful countryside add extra dimensions of space and light to each property.

AVAILABLE NOW

CLATHYMORE

Imagine a secluded setting amongst trees and hedges, in long-established farming country, yet perfectly placed for modern transport links. Think of natural stone houses under slate roofs, thoughtfully laid out like a traditional hamlet.

The final 4 plots have been offered to the market as self build plots, with only 2 remaining.

DESIGN

Planning Approval has been secured for the 4 self build plots, allowing purchasers to arrange their own build contract with a builder of their choice.

Alternatively, rather than build the currently consented house style, plot purchasers can appoint Denholm Partnership Architects to obtain planning consent for a house design to meet their own requirements. In order to protect the design integrity of Clathymore the new design must be approved by Stephen Country Homes.
